

Songtekst van de dans: An Irish Waltz

Mary Duff
Beautiful meath

I've travelled many counties in Ireland but there's still one I'm longing to see it has been a part of my homeland and it brings back fond memories to me where I wandered alone in my childhood reviewing the sights I once seen as I walked through the parks and the forests 'round the beautiful county of Meath.

Oh, beautiful Meath, you've got all that I need, your rivers they flow with delight your fields are so green, there's plains to be seen and your towns are so gay and so bright fishing down on the Boyne, I remember the time you would think it was all just a dream and wherever you roam, there's no place like home and the beautiful county of Meath.

I've seen Eire's beautiful castles and it's history I've learned so well I've read of the high kings of Tara and the wonderful Book of Kells where the slain still remember St. Patrick he lit a fire for the people to see 'ere he brought love and kindness to Ireland and the beautiful County of Meath.

Oh, beautiful Meath, you've got all that I need,
fishing down on the Boyne, I remember the time
and wherever you roam, there's no place like home
and the beautiful county of Meath.

Oh, beautiful Meath, you've got all that I need,
fishing down on the Boyne, I remember the time

and the beautiful county of Meath.
and wherever you roam, there's no place like home,
and the beautiful county of Meath.
